

Sharolyn Seymour, 48

Sharolyn K. "Shari" Seymour, of Sutton, died suddenly at home Saturday, May 13, 2006, at the age of 48. She was born June 30, 1957, in St. Johnsbury, the daughter of the late Dale H. and Kathleen R. (Craig) Weed. Shari attended Sutton School and graduated from Lyndon Institute in 1975. Following high school, Shari worked for 10 years as a teller at the Lyndonville branch of the Passumpsic Savings Bank. She then worked as a bookkeeper for R.A. Stahler and Sons, and later worked for Cal-Gas/AmeriGas, and then Irving Oil Co., all of Lyndonville. During the last five-plus years, she worked as the finance coordinator at the King George School in Sutton. On Nov. 28, 1987, she married Larry W. Seymour. Shari was a member of the Sutton Volunteer Fire Department for nearly 25 years, serving as a firefighter, secretary, treasurer, trustee, as well as being in charge of the annual strawberry suppers and the Christmas bazaars that benefited the fire department. She also served as the 911 coordinator for the town of Sutton, and was the treasurer of the West Burke United Methodist Church. Shari enjoyed all kinds of photography, taking photos of anything that caught her eye, including family, scenery, flowers and more. She enjoyed family trips to Maine, family reunions, genealogy, gardening, collecting nick nacks, and most importantly, attending her daughter's school, sporting and social events. Survivors include her husband, Larry W. Seymour, of Sutton; their daughter, Katrina Seymour, of Sutton; two sisters and their husbands, Susan and Richard Taylor, of South Kirby, and Karen and Edwin Lawson, of Lyndon; her mother in-law, Evelyn Seymour, of Sutton; two sisters in-law, Judy Tassmer, of Connecticut, and Charlotte and Stu Farina, of St. Johnsbury; two brothers in-law, Jim Seymour, of Sutton, and Alan and Jennifer Seymour, of Sutton; two stepsisters and their families, Gloria Ulrich and Beverly Spears, of Connecticut; many nieces and nephews; the King George School community; and the many fellow firefighters from Sutton and the surrounding communities. Shari will be sadly missed and her hard work will not be forgotten. Besides her parents, she was predeceased by her brother, Howard D. Weed, in 1984; and by an infant sister, Sharon L. Weed. Friends may call on the family this Wednesday evening from 6-8 at the Guibord Funeral Home. Funeral services will be held Thursday, May 18, 2006, at 11 a.m., at the West Burke United Methodist Church with Pastor Sue Mackay officiating. Burial will follow in the Sutton Village Cemetery, located just north of the fire department. In lieu of flowers, donations made in Shari Seymour's memory may be directed to the Sutton Volunteer Fire Department, in care of Gary Lotspeich, 559 Sheffield Road, Sutton, VT 05867. Arrangements are by Guibord Funeral Home, located on the corner of Main and Center Streets, Lyndonville.
