

Deborah Boland Moore of Lyndonville passed away suddenly as the result of an accident at home Monday, April 2, 2007, at the age of 48. She was born in Jamestown, N.Y., on March 10, 1959, the daughter of Howard and Carol (Mann) Boland. Just this past Dec. 14, she was predeceased by her husband and best friend, Michael. Debbie was a dental hygienist at Dr. John Armstrong's office in Lyndonville. She graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy and the University of Vermont dental hygienist program. She was a caring, compassionate person with a special love for all animals. She is survived by her son, Matthew Hill of Lyndonville (P.O. Box 334, 05851); her mother, Carol Simblest and husband Robert of Monroe, N.H. (P.O. Box 48, 03771); brother Gregory Boland and wife Cindy and their children, Alicia and Brian of Hudson, Mass.; and Michael's siblings, Sue, Sherry, Jeff and Tami. Her father, Howard, passed away in 2003. Family and friends will gather at Guibord Funeral Home Thursday, April 5, from 5 to 8 p.m. A celebration of both her and Michael's lives together will be held June 2 at the family hunting camp in Avery's Gore. Anyone wishing to attend is welcome.
