

Richard Dennis Durocher, age 53, of Vero Beach, Florida, and formerly of Lyndonville and St. Johnsbury, Vermont, passed away at the VNA Hospice House in Vero Beach, Florida on Wednesday, October 22, 2014. Richard (Rich) was born on March 27, 1961 in St. Johnsbury, Vermont, the son of Larry and Gloria Durocher. Rich is survived by his devoted wife, Lynn Daviault Durocher (of 9 years) and his parents Larry and Gloria Durocher; his siblings Barbara and her husband Maurice Chenette, Sandra and her husband Randy Amadon, Robert and his wife Rosemary Durocher, Raymond and his wife Kathleen Durocher; and his sister-in-law Diane and her husband Paul Rioux. Also surviving are his children Gregory and wife, Crystal Durocher, Eric Durocher, Megan Durocher; step-children Rebecca and husband, Dennis McCall, Scott and wife, Jessica Brewer, Benjamin and wife, Dani Marie Brewer; his grandchildren Sophia, Gemma, Isabella, Troy and Jaxon. Also surviving are numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and many life-long friends. Rich was predeceased by parents-in-law, Roger E. and Jeannette Blanchard Daviault. Visiting hours will be held at Pearsons Funeral Home on Sunday, Nov. 2nd from 2pm-4pm and 6pm-8pm. A Mass of Christian Burial will take place at St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church in Lyndonville, Vermont on Monday, Nov. 3rd at 11am. Burial will take place at Sacred Heart Cemetery in New Bedford, Massachusetts on Tuesday, Nov. 4th at 1pm. Donations may be made to the Lyndon Youth Baseball/Softball Program, C/O Jon Prue, PO Box

1146, Lyndonville, Vermont 05851 - OR - to the American Red Cross, VT/NH Region, ATTN: Local Disaster Relief, 29 Mansfield Avenue, Burlington, Vermont 05401 - OR - to the VNAHospiceHouse, 901 37th Street, Vero Beach, Florida