

Patrick N. Learmouth, age 41, of Richards Blvd, passed away unexpectedly January 1, 2017, at his home surrounded by his family.

Pat was born in St. Johnsbury, VT, on January 20, 1975, to Mary Louise (Noyes) and William Learmouth. He grew up and was educated there graduating with high honors from St. Johnsbury Academy in the Class of 1993. He worked at Maple Grove Farms in delivery as well as with Fed Ex. He married Lisa M. Young on October 29, 2010, spending their years together in East Haven. Pat was a backyard mechanic, who liked to fix everything on his own and strived to be a "Jack of all trades". He loved woodworking and wire-working and was a self-taught Jewel-Smith making and selling beautiful jewelry in the area. Pat was a "Crazy Metal-Head" as his son said and "One of the nicest guys you'll ever meet!" He always found great solace in his music and loved to play his bass in the living room. He spent many of his days with his daughter Becky, mushroom hunting in the woods of their mountain home and driving around taking photographs of the beautiful world as he saw it. Many late nights were spent watching wrestling together. He strived to live every moment like his last and loved his family with everything he had. So much is left unfinished and so many hopes and dreams have gone to rest with him. He will be greatly missed by all those who had the privilege to know him. Pat leaves behind five beautiful dogs: Mohajah, Isis, Star, Madeline and Kiara, two cats: Odin and Raden, and Aaron the bunny who will all miss him dearly.

He is survived by his wife, Lisa Young, of East Haven, daughter: Rebecca Young-Allen, mother: Mary L. Buzby of Lyndonville, his son: Andrew A.
