

PAGE: Bernard George, 83, of 61 Steve St., Lyndonville, Vt., passed away at the Pines Rehabilitation and Health Center in Lyndonville, Vt., Thursday, May 27, 2004. He was born Feb. 15, 1921 in Newport, Vt., the son of the late George T. and Lillian (Paige) Page. He attended school in Newport, N.H. He served in the Army during World War II and served in the Middle East. He was proud to serve his country. He worked for Fairbanks Morse and St. Johnsbury Academy. He enjoyed gardening, hunting, fishing and taking his special dog "Angel" for walks and just talking to family and friends. He is survived by his wife of 43 years, Mary (Shaw) Page, whom he married July 1, 1961; and his special dog "Angel." He is also survived by his daughters, Gloria Robbins and her husband Daryl, of Canaan, N.H., and Linda Martin and her husband Dan, of Lebanon, N.H.; his sister, Bernice Perry, of Newport, N.H.; five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren; and by many nieces, nephews and friends. He was predeceased by two brothers, Harold and Lloyd; a sister, Beatrice; two half-brothers, William and Austin Farwell; two half-sisters, Mildred Goodwin and Blanche Gould; and by a granddaughter, Meri Robbins. There will be no calling hours. Graveside services will be held Tuesday, June 1, 2004, at 11 a.m., in the Lyndon Center Cemetery, with John Sleeper officiating. Military services will also be conducted. Those who wish may send contributions in his memory to either the Caledonia Home Health Care Agency, P.O. Box 383, St. Johnsbury, VT 05819; or to David's House, P.O. Box 660, Lebanon, NH 03766-0660.