

Clifford A. Villeneuve, 77, of Symnoyes Road, Landaff, N.H., passed away on Monday, May 29, 2006, at the Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center, Lebanon, N.H., following an extended period of failing health. He was born in Hardwick, Vt., son of Barney and Carrie (Davio) Villeneuve. He attended the St. Johnsbury Trade School and then entered the U.S. Army, serving as a paratrooper. Following his military service he moved to Lisbon, N.H., and operated Cliff's Sunoco Station for several years. Following the sale of that business he went to work for the Lisbon Post Office as a rural mail carrier from which he retired. Following retirement he enjoyed spending winters in Las Vegas, Nev. He was an avid pilot, owning his own aircraft for many years. More recently he enjoyed giving Glider rides at the Franconia Soaring Center. He was a communicant of the St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Church, Lisbon, N.H. He was predeceased by his first wife, Joann, in 1993. He is survived by his wife Rochelle Villeneuve of Landaff, N.H.; a sister, Mildred Jangel of Claremont, N.H.; a stepdaughter, Lisa Houston of Lisbon, N.H., two stepsons, Roland LaCoss of Lyman, N.H. and Wyatt LaCoss of Belmont, Mass.; three step-grandchildren, nieces and nephews. Friends called at the Ross Funeral Home, Lisbon Chapel, on Wednesday, May 31, from 6-8 p.m. A Mass of Christian burial will be celebrated this morning at 10 a.m. at St. Catherine of Siena Church in Lisbon. Burial will follow in the Landaff Center Cemetery, Landaff, N.H.
