

Frank E. Forest, 60, of Dublin, N.H., formerly of Miles Pond, North Concord, Vt., died unexpectedly at his home on March 11, 2009. Frank is survived by his daughter Jennifer Armstron, and a son, Brian Forest. He is also survived by his mother, Joyce M. Forest and three sisters and two brothers: Saron and Kenneth Shatney, Arlene and William Allin, Claire and David Chapman, James and Phyllis Forest and Glenn and Patricia Forest. Frank was predeceased by his father, Arnold E. Forest and a niece, Charline Dewhurst. Frank was a graduate of Concord High School and a post graduate course from the St. Johnsbury Trade School. He served in the U.S. Army and was stationed for a year in Germany. He received many commendations and received his honorable discharge in 1979. Frank enjoyed being a free spirit and traveled extensively in the United States, making many friends. He liked working with wood and was a carpenter by trade. His specialty was renovating houses and also making furniture. Members of his family have pieces of furniture made especially for them, which they will always treasure. There will be no funeral. A graveside service will be held later at the convenience of the family. Donations in his memory can be sent to the Concord Fast Squad, Concord, VT 05824.
