

LOGREN: Jaclyn Ann (Judd), 50, of West Lebanon, N.H., died Wednesday morning, Feb. 13, 2002, at her home following a long illness. She was born in Newport, Vt., June 4, 1951, a daughter of Alansford J. and Alene Marie (Roy) Judd Jr. She attended schools in St. Johnsbury and was a graduate of St. Johnsbury Academy. She enjoyed skiing, was a ski patroller and a state award-winning track star. In 1972 she graduated from Mary Hitchcock Memorial Hospital School of Nursing and became a nurse, practicing at Symmes Hospital in Arlington, Mass., Northeastern Vermont Regional Hospital in St. Johnsbury, and was an operating room nurse at Mary Hitchcock Memorial Hospital since 1978. She loved gardening, the Antique Flea Market, biking and camping, and her two puppies, "Molly" and "Maggie." Her favorite place was her camp on Lake Seymour in Morgan, Vt. Survivors include her husband, Michael D. Logren of West Lebanon, whom she married Dec. 8, 1979; her father, Alansford J. Judd Jr. of St. Johnsbury Center; two daughters, Jennifer J. Logren and Kathleen "Kate" Logren, both of West Lebanon; two sisters, Patricia Russell and husband David of St. Johnsbury, and Cathy Judd-Stein and husband Jeffrey of Winchester, Mass.; and several nieces, nephews and cousins. A memorial service will be held Sunday afternoon, Feb. 17, at 2 p.m., in the Ricker Funeral Home, 56 School St., Lebanon. The Rev. Joseph Scarbo will officiate. Memorial contributions may be made to the Hospice of the Upper Valley, 325 Mount Support Road, Lebanon, NH 03766, or to the American Diabetes Association, P.O. Box 2680, North Canton, OH 44720.